Re: 2000 Post-General Report Amendment, October 19 - November 27, 2000
I.D. # C00044776

Dear Mr. Koeppen:

The Alabama Republican Party follows the following procedure in providing the identification for an individual whose aggregate contributions exceed $200 in a calendar year.

1. In the original solicitation, a form is always enclosed asking for the address, employer and occupation of the contributor. (Sample enclosed.)
2. On this form is a note informing the contributor that Federal law requires this information to be reported. (Sample enclosed.)
3. For missing employer/occupation information, a letter is sent (when address is available) asking again for this information. (Sample enclosed.)

Also, before reporting, the information is checked and phone calls are made to find this information.

Documents were enclosed in the last amendment to reflect this procedure for the Alabama Republican Party. If this additional information is not adequate for your review, please call me at 205-978-2500.

Sincerely,

Abbie Wiersma
Assistant Treasurer

In order for us to remain in compliance with Federal Election Law, we must report the occupation and employer for each individual whose aggregate contributions exceed $200.00 in a calendar year. According to records, we are missing the following information:

Please provide us with this information as quickly as possible. I have enclosed a pre-addressed envelope for your convenience.
